

TAMIL NADU AGRICULTURAL UNIVERSITY

o/o The Directorate of Planning & Monitoring,
TNAU, Coimbatore – 641003.

No. DPM/International Cell/Scholarships in Germany/2015 dated 18.12.2015.

CIRCULAR

The list of Scholarships available in Germany and its Universities for International students to pursue higher studies with financial assistance are enclosed. For further information and brochures, the websites of DAAD (German Academic Exchange Service ) and the respective universities / institutions may be browsed.

As the deadline for some of the Scholarships are nearing, the students may be advised to apply at the earliest. The information may be displayed in the Notice Board for wide publicity.

Director,
Planning & Monitoring.

Encl: Information on Scholarships to Study in Germany

To

All the University Officers and HODs

CC: TPO to the Vice Chancellor.

Government-funded scholarships to study in Germany

- DAAD Scholarships – The German Academic Exchange Service (DAAD) offers many scholarships for international students to study in Germany at various degree levels.
- Erasmus+ – The largest provider of scholarships for study in the EU, Erasmus+ is led by the European Commission, funding international students to study in Europe. It provides grants towards living costs when participating in an exchange program to study in Europe.

Non-government scholarships to study in Germany

- Einstein International Postdoctoral Fellowship – Fellowship sponsored by the Einstein Foundation for postdoctoral research at a university in Berlin.
- Heinrich Böll Scholarships for International Students – Scholarships for international students at master's or PhD level wishing to study in Germany at an accredited institution.
- Humboldt Research Fellowships for Postdoctoral Researchers – Postdoctoral scholarships for scientists and scholars of any subject and nationality. Students from developing and emerging countries may be eligible to apply for a Georg Forster Fellowship.
- Kurt Hansen Science Scholarships – Science scholarships to study in Germany, funded by the Bayer Foundation and open to students who are training to become educators in the field of science.
- Marie Curie International Incoming Fellowships (IIF) for Developing Countries – Postdoctoral research scholarships for international students wishing to study in Germany. Funded by the European Commission.
- Mawista Scholarship – Scholarships for those studying abroad while taking care of a child, including those pursuing study in Germany.
- Deutschland Stipendium – Merit-based scholarships of €300 a month are available to highly talented students enrolled at German universities. Nationality and your personal income do not affect your chances of being considered.
- The Helmholtz Association – Annual fellowships are available for doctoral and postdoctoral students from around the world, giving them the opportunity to do paid research at a Helmholtz center in Germany.

University-specific scholarships to study in Germany

- Bremen International Graduate School of Social Sciences (BIGSSS) – Opportunities for pre-doctoral, PhD and postdoctoral students to study in Germany at the University of Bremen.

- Frankfurt School of Finance and Management Doctoral Tuition Waivers – 10 tuition waiver scholarships for doctoral students studying an English-language program at Frankfurt within finance, accounting, mathematics and business administration.
- FRIAS Cofund Fellowship Programme for International Researchers – German scholarships for international students to study at Universität Freiburg on a research-level program.
- GeT MA Scholarships for International Students – Scholarships for non-German students to study at Humboldt-Universität zu Berlin on the German-Turkish master's program in social sciences.
- Hamburg University of Applied Sciences Masters Scholarships – Scholarships for international students (for all subjects excluding design, public health and public management) enrolled on a master's program at the university.
- Hessnatur Scholarship – German scholarships for international students interested in studying sustainability in fashion at master's level at ESMOD in Berlin.
- HHL International MSc Scholarship for Effective and Responsible Leadership – Scholarship opportunities to study management at master's level at HHL Leipzig Graduate School of Management.
- Humboldt University International Research Fellowships – Research fellowship opportunities for international students pursuing research in history, anthropology, law, sociology, political science, geography, economics or area studies at Humboldt University.
- International PhD Fellowships at Max Planck Research School for Ultrafast Imaging and Structural Dynamics – Scholarships for international students at PhD level to study at Universität Hamburg within the fields of physics or chemistry.
- KAAD Scholarships for Developing Countries – A scheme offering scholarships for international students from developing countries (in Africa, Asia, the Middle East and Latin America) to study at a German university at master's or PhD level. Candidates must possess German-language skills and be of Catholic-Christian denomination.
- Kiel University Doctoral Positions and Scholarships – Postgraduate funding opportunities at the Graduate School of Human Development in Landscapes at Kiel University in Germany.
- Kofi Annan MBA Scholarships for Developing Country Students – Scholarships for up to five international students from developing countries to study a full-time, one-year MBA at the European School of Management and Technology (ESMT) in Berlin.
- Ulm University Scholarships for International Students – Need-based scholarships for international students nearing graduation at Ulm University. Funding offered for one semester only.
- RWTH Aachen University scholarships – Funding opportunities for international and home students at RWTH Aachen University.

This article was originally published in September 2014. It was updated in December 2015.