Republic Day celebrated in TNAU

The 67th Republic Day was celebrated in a grand and fitting manner at Tamil Nadu Agricultural University, Coimbatore on 26-1-2016. The Vice-Chancellor Dr. K. Ramasamy was received by Dr.S. Mahimairaja, Dean (Agriculture), TNAU.

The Vice-Chancellor unfurled the National Flag at 8.00 am and delivered the Republic Day address. In his address, the Vice Chancellor stressed about the feeling of one nation and reminded the sacrifices made by the freedom fighters and Indian Leaders to achieve India the great Republic. He also made his remarks on the successful implementation of “Green Revolution technologies transformed India into a Self sufficient country in-spite of the increasing population. The contributions of TNAU though is remarkable, India and world expects more from us. He appealed to the young students of TNAU and scientists to innovate new technologies and serve the farmers. And therefore to ensure food safety and livelihood of our people, he appealed to everyone to work with commitment and dedication. He expressed his strong belief on the feeling of oneness and it could alone be the only word that would bring wholesome improvement to India and progressive days ahead.

Our Vice chancellor distributed the certificates for prize winners of the various events. Students made their impressive cultural performance through patriotic dances, songs depicting natural conservation and national integration.

Lt. Dr.S. Manonmani, Lady NCC Officer and Lt. Dr.K.M. Sellamuthu, NCC Officer presented an impressive guard of honour along with the NCC cadets and NSS volunteers. The Vice-Chancellor distributed sweets to the participants. All University Officers, Heads of Department, NSS Coordinator, NSS Programme Officers, staff members and children and teachers of New Bharat school enthusiastically participated in the Republic Day celebrations.
