
CENTENARY Photography Competition

Centenary celebrations of Sugarcane Breeding Institute

Sugarcane Breeding Institute of the Indian Council of Agricultural Research (ICAR) is celebrating its centenary this year. One of the oldest agricultural research institutions in the country, the Institute was established in Coimbatore in 1912 by Dr C.A. Barber, the then Govt.Sugarcane Expert. The Institute is well-known in India and abroad for the outstanding sugarcane varieties it has developed, which were grown in over 30 countries once.

Commemorating its centenary, the Society for Sugarcane Research and Development (SSRD), Sugarcane Breeding Institute, Coimbatore is organizing an online photography competition open to all Indian citizens living in India.

The submission details of the competition are enclosed and are available in <http://www.sugarcane100.blogspot.in/> , www.sugarcane.res.in and www.caneinfo.nic.in .The last date for receiving the entries would be 15 December 2012.
