

Tamil Nadu Agricultural University
Coimbatore – 641 003

Dr.M.Rajavel, Ph.D.,
Public Relations Officer
Mobile: 94890 56730

Phone: 0422 - 6611302
Fax: 0422 – 2431821
E-mail: pro@tnau.ac.in

To

Date: 04.11.2025

The Editor,
Sir,

I request that the following message may kindly be published in your esteemed daily:

TNAU Organized District Level Quiz Competition for Students Across Coimbatore

The District Level Quiz Competition for students across Coimbatore district was organized by the Social Service League on 1st November 2025 at Tamil Nadu Agricultural University, Coimbatore. The event witnessed enthusiastic participation from students representing various schools across the district. The primary aim of the competition was to promote knowledge, quick thinking, and teamwork among young learners.

The competition was inaugurated by Dr. J. Ramalingam, Dean, Centre for Students Welfare who motivated the participants emphasizing the importance of curiosity, discipline, and teamwork in shaping young minds. A total of 90 Tamil and English medium schools across Coimbatore district participated in the event, including 156 teams performed meticulous performance.

A special address was delivered by the Acting Vice-Chancellor and Registrar, Dr. R. Tamil Vendan, who commended the efforts and dedication of the Social Service League members and praised their long-standing legacy of fostering educational and social growth and distributed prizes to the winners. The Chief Guest, Mr. P.M. Senthil Kumar, Assistant General Manager and Regional Head, Union Bank of India, Salem highlighted the value of perseverance, continuous learning, and teamwork as keys to success, motivating students to carry the spirit of learning beyond the classroom. The event was organized by the staff associates of Social Service League Dr.R. Mahendran, Professor (Bio Energy) and Dr. M. Raju, Professor (Agronomy), TNAU, Coimbatore. Selvan. G. Vikash, proposed the vote of thanks.

Public Relations Officer