Sir,

I request that the following matter may kindly be published in your esteemed daily:

TNAU Conducts Orientation Programme on Mandated Activities of the Krishi Vigyan Kendra

The Indian Council of Agricultural Research – Agricultural Technology Application Research Institute, Bengaluru and Directorate of Extension Education, TNAU, Coimbatore organizing a “Orientation Programme on Mandated Activities of the Krishi Vigyan Kendra” to 25 KVK Scientists working in the KVKs in Tamil Nadu from Sept. 14-16, 2015 at TNAU, Coimbatore.

Dr. Sreenath Dixit, Director, ATARI, Bengaluru motivated the KVK Scientists and emphasized the role of KVKs as an Innovative Institution in technology transfer to the farming community.

Dr. H. Philip, Director of Extension Education, TNAU exposed the participants on “Documentation of Success Stories of farmers through media”.

The three day programme covers Participatory Rural Appraisal in farmers fields, sharing experiences of the scientists on conducting KVK mandated activities etc.
